HOUSE RESOLUTION 228
By Eckles

A RESOLUTION to commend Susan Toombs for extraordinary service as a legislative intern.

WHEREAS, each legislative session this body is pleased to recognize certain persons who have committed themselves, through their adroit service, to the betterment of the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Susan Toombs is one such individual who has distinguished herself in her role as a legislative intern for Representative Mary Ann Eckles; Susan's work resulted in innumerable benefits for the legislator she assisted, the entire membership of the House Health and Human Resources Committee, the House Clerk's office, and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, a student at Middle Tennessee State University, where she is highly admired by her peers, Miss Toombs has achieved academic success while majoring in Political Science and participating in numerous extracurricular activities; and

WHEREAS, Susan's display of intellectual aptitude and ambition surely bodes well for her future success as she plans to pursue a law degree after completing the requirements for her undergraduate degree at MTSU; and

WHEREAS, throughout the 2000 legislative session, Susan Toombs has surpassed all criteria with regard to the attributes of a devoted and conscientious legislative intern, including having turned twenty-one while completing her internship requirements, being exercise-conscious by completing her daily walks, and being very frugal with her money; and

WHEREAS, eager to familiarize herself about the characteristics and complexity of Tennessee state government and to assist in her studies, Susan brought her many abilities and expertise, along with her very tan and thin body, to Capitol Hill for the 2000 session of the One Hundred First General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, Miss Toombs has performed her many duties with extraordinary insight and decorum, much to the immense pride of her parents, Diane and Bill Toombs of Clarksville; her cousin, the Honorable Joe Fowlkes; the legislator she served, the Honorable Mary Ann Eckles; the House Clerk's Office; and the entire House Health and Human Resources Committee and staff; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, That we hereby commend Miss Susan Toombs for outstanding service as a legislative intern and extend to her our best wishes for every future success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
